

Grass, Weeds, and Lamb Chops

April 18-19, 2009

A shepherd is: a surgeon, a security guard, a people expert, teacher, pastor, trainer, example, influencer, undercover agent, discerner, protector, excommunicator, good communicator, in constant growth, changer, conqueror – that's just a small part of a shepherd's position, which only proves no one could be perfect at all this. And yet, entrusted by God with a word, a vision.

The church contains various personalities:

A pastor must identify them and teach them.

Elders must identify them and steer them.

People must identify them to gain positive or negative influence.

GRASS, WEEDS, AND LAMB CHOPS!

Confessions for this week:

Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers. Psalms 1:1-3 (NIV)

Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers. 3 John 1:2 (NKJV)
